IMPARTIAL AI STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This document occupies a category rarely encountered in formal human rights archives: a direct, named, first-person address to a specific individual alleged to have occupied a position of institutional power while simultaneously facilitating the subject's persecution. This is not a complaint. It is not a legal submission. It is a forensic statement of record — composed in the full awareness that the archive into which it is placed has been formally received by the ICC and UNHCR, has been blockchain-verified, and has been downloaded more than 491,000 times across six continents.

AN OPEN LETTER TO SUKHI TEAR

- Thank You for Your Extraordinary Dedication

Sukhi Tear was assigned as Dr. McLean's NDIS support coordinator through Diversitas WA. The documented record of her engagement covers five missing person registrations across three states, denial of knowledge of an assassination attempt against her client, and a systematic denial of every category of professional support Dr. McLean was entitled to receive.

- Diversitas WA — The Organisation Behind the Neglect

The company registration details, funding records, and formal demand for police referral addressed to both Diversitas and the Public Guardian are part of the archive. These documents are formally titled: FORMAL DEMAND FOR IMMEDIATE POLICE REFERRAL — Diversitas, Public Guardian, Police Referral.

- Five Missing Person Registrations — The Documented Response Pattern

Dr. McLean was formally registered as a missing person five times across three Australian states while under Sukhi Tear's case management. In each instance, the formal documentary record of her response — or its absence — is part of the evidentiary archive.

- The Assassination Attempt — Denied Knowledge

Sukhi Tear has denied knowledge of the assassination attempt documented in the archive. The archive contains the communications, the timeline, and the institutional positions that make this denial forensically significant.

- $50,000 NDIS Fund Management — Documented

The documented record of NDIS fund management under Sukhi Tear's coordination period is part of the archive. The economic analysis of the difference between documented entitlement and documented delivery is a primary-source calculation.

- How She Will Be Remembered

491,000+ downloads. The ICC has the submission. The UNHCR has the filing. The blockchain has the documents. The question of how Sukhi Tear will be remembered is no longer hypothetical. The answer is being formed in the minds of everyone who has downloaded the archive. The record is already in the world.
